Grounds yesterday, but there were recur-ting manifestations of power and the Browns rough hewed their way to a vig-tory over the New Yorks. The score was 7 to 4. The batting of the Browns had a good deal of ferocity against the ordinary pitching it was called on to meet. Keating, Pisher, Caldwell and Warhop were trot-ted out in succession by Chance, and their work ran from fair to indifferent, with less of the fair than of the other. A one inning reign showed that Kentley is wouldn't do. Fisher fared well enough would the sixth, when his measure was a taken. He lasted a third of that inning.

all to themselves, this thing of putting the skids under pitchers. They were more industrious at it, that's all. Frayed and tattered fielding was visible in spots; a loose sort of a game between the two stragglers it was. The Browns, however, played with more life. Jimmy Austin being under suspension for repar-Austin being under suspension for repartee to an umpire not authorized by Ban Johnson's lexicon, the pilgrims had a makeshift infield, which, at that, wasn't so bad, inasmuch as Bobby Wallace was at third, and the old fellow is still a skilled workman. Gee-us Williams kept his manager company with the cudgel, shaded him a soupcon in fact, with four hits, and this twain between them did much to humb the New Yorks into that state of being represented by recent tennis and polo invaders on conquest bent. Hartzell was brought in to third and Cree re-grafted in left. The team didn't work as smoothly as before, rather slumped from its recent peppery playing. The batting order was rearranged also. It hit pretty well as to amount, but scat-

The first inning was one mutual scoring, two to one for the Browns. Shotten walked and Stovall doubled. Johnston struck out and Pratt cuffed to Neating, who nipped Shotten at home. Williams tripled to the fence for two runs, tried to enlarge the blood of the property of the bit to a homer and was relayed out. Daniels to Peck to Sweeney. The New Yorks have made so many of those plays leady that they are getting rather perfect. Deniels and Wolter singled in the first.

Fisher's hit enabled the New Yorks to tie the score in the second, and they took the lead in the third on a base hit and an error melange. Wolter singled and kept on to second, where Williams's throw had him dead to rights until Pratt dropped it. Cree filed to Williams, whose sling to Wallace would have had him copped if agnew hadn't dropped Renaissance Robert's assist. While groping for the ball, Wolter was on second after doubling in yesterday's game with the tree fited to Williams and after the catch Wolter sped for third. Williams's throw to head him off was wild and he kept on and scored. Umpire Connelly is intent upon watching the play.

Give Up Fielder? Sure. for R. Ford!

DHILADELPHIA, June 17,--Connie Mack is willing to let New York have one of his extra outfielders, Jimmy Walsh or Pete Daley, the coast star, provided Frank Chance desires to turn over to him Russell Ford. Mack when asked to-day concerning the report which emanated from New York that Chance desired an Athletic outfielder stated he would be willing to hand over either player mentioned for Ford

Keyes Professional; P.S.A.L. Title Shifts

THE final standing in the pennant race for the high school baseball championship of Manhattan was knocked bottom side up yesterday when the high school games committee of the P. S. A. L. ruled that Jack Keyes is a professional and declared forfeited every game in which he pitched for High School of Commerce, all of which he had won. This changed the Commerce record from 5 won, 0 lost to 1 won, 4 lost and shifted Stuyvesant's record from 4 won, 1 lost to 5 won, o lost, giving the latter the title. It was found, as Curtis High School charged, that Keves played under the name of Flynn with the semiprofessional Superbas not only this spring but also last summer.

Exchange Berths in Standing. PITTEBURG, June 17.—The Bostons to-day shut out the Pirates by a shore of 1 to 0 and went into fifth place, should the Pirates into sixth. It was a battle of pitchers, both Perdue and O'Toole being pitchers, both Ferdue and O'Toole being at their best. Only seven hits were made, four off Perdue and three off O'Toole But for an error by Carey, who dropped a fly in the seventh inning, the game would have gone into extra innings. Tha error allowed Connolly to reach second. He went to third on a sacrifice by Sweeney and scored on a single by Titus. Pirate reached third base only twice and connolly, who scored the run, was the only

Boston player to get to that point. BOSTON (N. L.). PITTSBURG
